[Faint, illegible handwritten text, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm air of the city. I had heard that the weather was bad, but I didn't realize it would be so cold.
I was wearing a light jacket, and I was sure I would regret it soon.

2. The second thing I noticed was the noise. It was a constant hum of engines and the chatter of people. I had never been in a city so busy before.

3. The third thing I noticed was the smell. It was a mix of perfume, food, and exhaust.
I had never smelled anything like it before.

4. The fourth thing I noticed was the sight. It was a city of skyscrapers and streets filled with cars.
I had never seen anything like it before.
